Jim and Karen Boeger

In 2005, Jim and Karen Boeger donated the funds necessary to develop the Boeger Leadership Center and Lodge. Throughout Jim's many years of devoted service in the Boy Scouts of America, he recognized the value and need of leadership training. In 2009, Jim's dream became a reality in the completion of the Boeger Lodge.

The Boeger Lodge is located on the

BOEGER LEADERSHIP CENTER

PROPERTY FEATURES

Located seven miles south of Oregon, Illinois, Camp Lowden is on 250 acres of wooded property surrounded by the Lowden-Miller State Forest. Camp Lowden was established in 1940 on the estate of former Illinois Governor Frank Lowden; it is owned and operated by Blackhawk Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

In addition to the Boeger Lodge, Camp Lowden serves as a site for Scout unit camping or camping retreats for your non-scouting group throughout the year. Groups can use the campsites and several cabins to provide individuals with an unforgettable outdoor experience. Be sure to make your reservation as soon as possible as weekends fill up quickly!

Campsites: There are eight established campsites in camp that can be used for tent camping:

Program Areas: With advanced notice, the Climbing Wall, Archery Range, and Rifle Range can be rented.

Cabins: There are several cabins available for rent.

Canoes: Camp Lowden has canoes and trailers that are available to rent.

Hiking Trails: There is a network of marked hiking trails throughout the camp and the surrounding state forest.
